She will be assisted by Rachel Gordon, our 4-year-old Teacher, who has agreed to also be an Assistant Director. We are thankful to God for his continued faithfulness in providing for the little ones in our church and community.

NEW TRAINING THROUGH GMTS

Glocal Missionary Training School is announcing a new online training entitled, “How do I share Jesus with people?” This training is 10-sessions long and will begin on February 8. It will be focused on hand-on learning with local teams of 2, 4, or more people in specific geographical locations. We all know that we are supposed to share Christ with others, but often fear, uncertainty, or lack of knowledge can become barriers. Find out how to overcome these barriers and learn tried, tested, and simple ways to intentionally share your faith effectively with others in everyday life.

LETTER FROM DCE JACKIE

Dear Friends of Beautiful Savior,

In the midst of this Christmas season I pray that your celebrations have been joyous and your new year is off to a great start! For our family this new year has led to a challenging but important decision that I wish to share with you today.

After many months of striving to find a balance between my dual vocations of mother and DCE (Daniel's doing well, by the way – we can't believe he's already 6 months old!), Matt and I have decided the time has come for me to step down from my position at Beautiful Savior. I will certainly miss being able to serve our church community as a staff member, but for this season my heart is being called first and foremost to our home. With that new call as the primary one on my life, I am returning my call as Director of Christian Education to the congregation.

This was by no means an easy decision to make, as I have loved dearly my time spent serving at BSLC. For many years you have allowed me the grace and freedom to experiment in ministry while loving and caring for me and my family every step of the way. I have been invited and encouraged to use more of my gifts than I ever imagined could serve the church and I've had the opportunity to do so alongside countless friends who are striving to live out the Gospel in their lives for the sake of others. I am honored by the trust you have bestowed in me to steward our educational ministries and only hope that my work has helped point our community to Christ, even a fraction of the ways I have been pointed to him by you.

Though this will certainly mean a significant shift for our family and the congregation, I am thankful that it provides us the opportunity to remain in the area and connected to this community which we have grown to love so dearly. I am looking forward to continuing to volunteer with our youth, both at BSLC and throughout the region, and we are thankful to still be able to call Beautiful Savior our church home.

Thank you again for all the love and support you have shown to our family. I have truly been blessed to serve in this place and will dearly miss doing so as your DCE. We look forward to seeing how God will work in and through us all in new ways in this coming season.

In Christ,

Jackie Druckhammer
